as usual, won the Thanksgiving day football game from Cornell this after-BEFORE RITCHIE'S BLOWS moon, the score being 21 to 9. The two teams have met on this day for the last nineteen years and Pennsylvania has wone seventeen times.

About 25,000 persons saw the contest, At the end of the first period today it looked like a close game with the result very much in doubt. Pennsylvania had scored within three minutes of play on a forward pass to Jourdet and Cornell before the period was over avened the score through a 45 yard run by Eyrick, who recovered a punt that the Pennsylvania backfield missed. The Ithaca team then took a brace and played good football, but the Pennsylvanians showed the better coviling covering and also displayed. the Pennsylvanians showed the better staying qualities and also displayed better generalship, taking the lead in the third period and increasing it in the last quarter. The game was good in spots and enjoyable from the spectators' point of view. There were numerous forward passes in which Pennsylvania fared better than Cornell and many end runs for from twenty to thirty yards featured the game, Captain Mercer of Pennsylvania being the particular star in advancing the ball. particular star in advancing the ba In the second period Cornell got the ball on a punt on her own 50 yard line and worked it on short rushes to the Pennsylvania 35 yard line, where Butler kicked a pretty goal from place-Pennsylvania stowed the game away safely in the final period when nine points were added to her total. The red and blue securing the bail on a fumbled punt on Cornell's ten yard line, Marshall, who had come into the game but a moment before, kicked a field goal from the twenty yard line. Just as time was about to be called for the end of the game, Barr made an onside kick with the ball well in Cornell's territory and Spruance leaped in the air and county to There ed in the air and caught it. There was no one in front of him and he ran ten yeards between himself and the Cornell goal for Pennsylvania's final score. Minds kicked the goal.

Big Point Scorers.

Of the football teams this year Am-herst, Williams, Springfield Training, Harvard and the Navy are prominent Harvard and the Navy are prominent in the one-man scoring department.
Captain Madden has tallied 22 of Amherst team's 34 total: Dalton scored 54 of the Midshipmen's 115 points; Nag's has 17 of Williams' 44 tallies to his credit; and Mann has captured 39 of the Training School's 102 total score, while the crack Wendell has scored 45 of the 9s the Crimson has tallied. A team's offense must in many cases be built around one man, and this has been true as to Wendell. Dalton, Mann, Madden and Nagle, a fact.

The New York Americans will no doubt have Harry Wolverton for their new head. Harry is a brainy ball-player and well capable of taking charge of the Yankees.

The Dartmouth, the undergraduate publication of Hanover, terms the past football season a distinct success for the green. It says in part: "No green season, however unsuccessful in point of the number of games won and lost, has failed to produce certain advantages that work to the material interest of the college and its supporters. The season just over, claiming as it did, more encouragement and newspaper commendation than any recent season of a Dartmouth eleven, can justly be called a distinct success,"
